

BASIC REQUIREMENTS

for organizers to be nominated as host of World Cup- and/or Grand Prix events in Ski Jumping

I. TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS

Technical requirements in general must follow the „standards for the construction of jumping hills“ (December 1996).

In addition:

a) Valid hill certificate

Even if there is a valid hill certificate, requirements set by the Jumping Committee (change of profile measurements, gradient of take-off i.e.) must be followed.

b) Athletes compound

Within the jumping facility an athletes compound has to be available for the participating nations and service personnel Installed with heated containers or huts equipped with electricity supply

c) Warm-up room at starting tower

In the immediate vicinity of the start tower a heated room for at least 10 competitors must be available

d) Coaching zone at take-off and landing area

Special areas for coaches for at least 20 persons must be available at the take-off area as well as at the landing area during training and competition

e) Action area for interview and winners ceremony

A so-called action room has to be designated next to the exit gate for winners ceremonies and interviews.

f) Optimal working conditions for TV, media

Platforms and stands for photographers, television companies, representatives of press have to be provided.

g) Electronical score board

h) Elevator/Chairlift

i) Press center

Next to the competition area a media center with high standard working conditions according to the guidelines of the FIS media committee has to be installed.

j) FIS data service

To guarantee a high technical standard and to ensure a corporate identity at all events the data service baggage provided by the FIS has to be accepted.

It consists of the following components:

- + Data service
- + TV-graphic
- + Video distance measuring system
- + System for wind speed measuring
- + Technical equipment for starting procedure

k) TV-Signal

The production of an international TV signal for the entire duration of the competition is required. The quality of the TV signal must comply with international standards.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

a) Fulfilment of the International Competition Rules (ICR)

An organization has to be composed which consists of an

- + organizing committee and a
- + competition committee

