Each National Ski Association has full responsibility for the qualification of its competitors for YOS competitions and for their ability to handle the jumping hills being used.
- 2.3 Number of Participants for the National Ski Associations
 - Each National Ski Association may enter, for each category of a YOS event, a maximum of four (4) athletes.
 - the host nation has the right to enter per categories an additional National Group of five (5) athletes (group I);
 - the maximum starting quota of the host nation can therefore be nine (9) per category, however, all other participating nations up to a maximum quota of four (4) athletes per gender.

3. Competition Mode and Starting Order

The YOS competitions have to be carried out according to ICR art. 452 (individual competitions) with the following supplements:

3.1 For individual competitions the competitors will be divided into two groups. The number sequence of the groups is as follows:

- Group I of the organizing country
- Group II (all other athletes)

The starting order within the group will be determined as follows:

- Group I: draw or seeding
- Group II: draw

4. Exceptions for the competition equipment

4.1 Skis: ski length max. 143% of the body height and no BMI rule.

4.2 Suits: number of parts is not limited; the design (cut) of the suit is not limited.

5. Payment of Expenses

5.1 Every YOS competition organiser must take over the following costs for each participating National Ski Association according to the following key:

- all entered athletes (except National Group)
- two (2) officials per nation

5.2 Accommodation

Room and full pension in the competition resort for the duration of the event, beginning one night before the first official training resp. the following night after the last competition.

An invitation and information packet must be sent by the organiser to each National Ski Association. Participating teams must enter their competitors prior to the published entry deadline. By doing so, secure their required number of booked reservation.

For booked room reservation not used, the organiser has the right to demand a cancellation fee from the resp. National Ski Association.

By no means are the organiser or the hotel manager allowed, without agreement of the team captain, to demand the vacating of the rooms on the day of the competition.
