Quotes:

Ivan Babikov (RUS): "The race was tough. The classical part of our team was not very good but with our "iron-man" on the last position (Sergej Shiriaev) we could reach today the top of the podium. He is our hero today and we are all very satisfied with that victory."

Pietro Piller Cottrer (ITA): "This race today is our first podium place for the team in this season and we are happy about it – now the World Championships can start. It was nice, this race, especially when I was skiing and the whole team members were on the course and gave me perfect instructions and supported me a lot. Our goal now for Sapporo's relay competition is the victory."

Jean Marc Gaillard (FRA): "It was a good weekend for the French team with the victory of Vincent yesterday and the today's podium place in the team. I felt very good in my lap and I could contribute a good result for this podium place. We hope we could continue in this way and be on the podium also at the World Championships in Sapporo."
