

COC in Zakopane (POL): Bystoel´s second strike

03.02.2008/hn

After his win in the first competition yesterday Norwegian Lars Bystoel won the second COC competitions in Zakopane (POL) today.

Bystoel made 275.8 points with his jumps to 133.5 and 135 meters. Bystoel´s team mate Kim Rene Elverum Sorsell who finished second yesterday made another place on the podium, today he made the third place (271.9 points / 133 and 130 meters). On the second place finished Jure Sinkovec from Slovenia (272 points / 128 and 134.5 meters) today.

Statements:

Lars Bystoel (NOR): "It was a really fantastic weekend for me here in Zakopane and I would really like to have more opportunities to jump here. Now my goal is to get a place in the team for the Nordic Tournament. I hope that I will qualify and be able to jump in the competitions".

Jure Sinkovec (SLO): "We have a really great team-spirit in our team. Everyone is really supportive and caring. I think that I'm going to Liberec next, but that is a decision that the coach needs to make".

Kim René Elverum Sorsell (NOR): "I think that I will jump some more COC competitions now, but the junior World Championships are also coming closer and I will definitely start there".

Stefan Thurnbichler (600 points) is still in the lead in the COC overall ranking ahead of Balthasar Schneider (AUT) (496 points).and Bastian Kaltenboeck (477 points).

Next COC Competitions will be held in Braunlage (GER) today, 09.+10.02.2008.
