WELCOME

November 1, 2010

Dear Athletes, Coaches, Officials and Parents –

Welcome to the 2011 FIS FREESTYLE NORAM CUP. The NorAm Cup is the stepping stone and training ground to the big show, the WORLD CUP. Acting as both an access point and holding area to the best developing skiers in the America's and the World, the FIS Freestyle NorAm Cup has events in all FIS Freestyle disciplines – Ski Cross, Moguls, Dual Moguls, Ski Halfpipe, Aerials and Ski Slopestyle (2012).

Our goal is to assure that your experience at this level of skiing is safe, fair and fun. We work closely with CSX/ACA, USSA, CFSA, the representing officials and the local organizers to assure we are as well prepared to operate a competition as you are to compete. We look forward to your success throughout the 2011 NorAm Cup. If we can be a help throughout the season please do not hesitate to contact us at cweir@canadaskicross.ca or konrad@urtur.com – GOOD LUCK!

Best Regards,

Ski Cross Showdown at RED

January 3, 2011

Dear Skiers,

Welcome To RED! On behalf of RED Mountain Resort and the Red Mountain Racers, I am pleased to extend a warm Kootenay invitation for you to attend the FIS Ski Cross Nor Am Finals here at western Canada's original ski area. The Ski Cross Showdown will be one of the biggest events at RED this winter featuring 2 back-to-back NorAm Ski Cross competitions.

We look forward to hosting all the athletes, coaches, support personnel, officials, sponsors and media for what promises to be an exciting conclusion to a long season of NorAm Ski Cross action.

And don't forget to bring your powder skis to enjoy our incredible mountains and the "steep and deep" after the racing! RED offers 2,919 feet of vertical drop (884 meters) featuring over 300 inches (750cm) of annual snowfall, champagne powder, world renowned gladed tree skiing and wide-open groomed runs. No crowds assure that powder stashes stay untouched for days.

See you soon!

Best Regards,

Erik Kalacis
