FIS NORDIC COMBINED WORLD CUP 2013/2014

SEEFELD TRIPLE

17. – 19.01.2014

HIGHLIGHTS

- Premiere for the Nordic Combined World Cup – for the first time 3 competitions on consecutive 3 days are held with one overall winner in the end
- 100'000 € prize money
- the Nordic Combined triple winner receives 200 World Cup points – double the amount usually allocated for a win in a world cup competition
- created to dovetail with season highlights like the Tour de Ski and Four Hills Tournament
  - draw the attention on the FIS Nordic Combined World Cup
  - recapture the excitement, especially in seasons without major championships

COMPETITION FORMAT

- three competitions on consecutive three days:
  - 17.01.: 1 jump, 5 km of cross-country skiing
  - 18.01.: 1 jump, 10 km of cross-country skiing
  - 19.01.: 2 jumps, 15 km of cross-country skiing
- PCR held on Thursday
- after the first race the number of competitors for the following competition (Saturday) will be reduced to the Top 50, on Sunday only the 30 best athletes in the ranking are allowed to start
- The first athlete to cross the finish line on Sunday wins the Nordic Combined Triple

CALCULATION

- athletes take their results with them from day to day
- after the cross-country competitions on Day 1 and Day 2, the times are in each case converted back to ski jumping points for the following day
  - 1 minute equals -15 points
- every athlete except for the leader starts into the Ski Jumping parts with minus points
- except for the minus points, the competitions on Day 2 and Day 3 are held as usual
