WELCOME

Dear Athletes, Coaches, Officials and Parents –

Welcome to the 2016 FIS FREESTYLE NORAM Finals. The NorAm Cup is the stepping stone and training ground to the big show, the WORLD CUP. Acting as both an access point and holding area to the best developing skiers in the America's and the World, the FIS Freestyle NorAm Cup has events in all FIS Freestyle disciplines – Ski Cross, Moguls, Dual Moguls, Ski Halfpipe, Aerials and Ski Slopestyle .

My goal is to assure that your experience at this level of freestyle skiing is safe, fair and fun. I work closely with USSA, CFSA, the representing officials and the Local Organizers to assure we are as well prepared to operate a competition as you are to compete. I look forward to your success throughout the 2016 NorAm Cup. If I can be a help throughout the season please do not hesitate to contact me at konrad@maisntreamcs.com – GOOD LUCK!

Best Regards,

Konrad X. Rotermund, Volunteer Coordinator

FIS FREESTYLE NORAM CUP

December 1, 2016

Welcome NORAM Athletes,

The Killington Ski Club and Killington Mountain School, along with the Killington Resort are honored to host the 2016 FIS NorAm Cup Finals. We welcome elite athletes from across North America and all over the world to compete in these exciting, high level mogul competitions.

Along with being the biggest resort in the East Coast, Killington has a long standing tradition and culture of mogul skiing. The Killington community enthusiastically embraces mogul skiers at all levels from the development programs through the elite level. We wish the best of luck to all of the competitors!

Included in this packet, please find event and registration details. Please feel free to reach out with any questions.

Best Regards,

Nori Pepe
