Montchavin-la Plagne resort has had a balanced history with Telemark skiing:

- A balance between the soul of an old Savoie village and a sport which goes back to the roots of skiing.

- A balance between an authentic resort with top level equipment and the spirit of a sport which has evolved without breaking its links with tradition;

- A balance between one of the vastest skiing areas in the world and a variety of mountainous landscapes offering superb forest trails that lend themselves to the most spectacular skiing figures.
