11. Further information

- All participants have to be insured against accidents. The organizer declines any liability for accidents by competitors, officials, helpers and spectators.
- The great trophy will be given as a challenge trophy to the winner in the Nordic Combined event (Gundersen). The trophy becomes his property, if he wins it three times in succession or all together five times. As a token the winner will receive a miniature trophy. The winner of the challenge trophy is responsible for it and will guarantee to get the trophy back to the organizers in good time for the next years' event.
