LOCATION

Silvaplana (1815m) with its ski resort Corvatsch (up to 3303m) is located in the Engadine, Switzerland. Engadine is a famous valley in the Southern Alps with a long skiing tradition and St.Moritz as its main town. Corvatsch goal is to establish an outstanding free skiing event in the Engadine valley. As Corvatsch is a big mountain resort, the slopestyle course will be located on a high altitude with its start on 2700m.

SLOPESTYLE COURSE

Construction Crew:

Kobi Würsch (SUI) is the designer and head shaper of the course. Kobi has numerous years of experience in course designing, snow park building and cat driving and has been supporting the Corvatsch for the World Cup and many other events since a long time. Kobi together with Pascal Zwicky, as the permanent responsible for the park at Corvatsch and their team bring in all their know how to set up once again a spectacular course. Find the course animation at the end of the document.

The course setup will be published end of January on www.corvatsch.ch.

There is a chairlift beside the course
