VISAS

Most foreign citizens need a valid visa to enter Russia.

You can get an electronic visa using the website of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation: <https://evisa.kdmid.ru/ru-RU/Home/Index>

An electronic visa is issued free of charge.

The deadline for issuing an electronic visa is not more than 4 calendar days after the application is submitted. The permitted term of stay in the Russian Federation with the electronic visa is up to 8 days, starting from the date of the entry.

Please inform the OC about receiving the electronic visa in advance.

IMPORTANT:

To avoid any problems with obtaining a VISA, you need to take care of this in advance. We draw your attention to the requirement to fill out an electronic application. It is very important. Do not make mistakes when filling out the application.

If you do not receive an electronic visa notification or refusal to issue an electronic visa within four days, please contact your local Russian embassy or consulate to clarify which rules apply in your case. Contacts of the Russian consulates can be found on the website of the Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs http://www.mid.ru/en/main_en, a direct link to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs <https://www.mid.ru/en/maps>

Please inform the OC if you require a visa invitation. The invitation process can take several days. In order to avoid delays in issuing visas, make sure that all data and passport copies of each participant are submitted to the OC no later than Tuesday, February 4th, 2020 inclusive.

In this case, the visa will be fee-based.

Data required for a visa invitation:

1. A scanned copy of the passport page with the following information:
Name, gender, date of birth (mm. DD.YYYY), passport number, issue and expiration dates (mm. DD.YYYY).
2. Function (athlete, coach, doctor, etc.).
3. Russian Embassy or Consulate where a visa will be obtained (country, city).
4. Arrival and departure dates (travel itinerary).
5. National Federation name and address.

All questions regarding visa support are to be addressed to:
