RADIO FREQUENCES AND COMMUNICATION

Due to the Russian law regarding the radio communication during major events such as the World Cup, all radio frequencies (RF) used by the participating teams must undergo an electromagnetic compatibility (EMC) test. Based on those results, some frequencies would be classified as free others would be available under a certain price. In order to avoid complications with radio communications on the days of the event, all the teams will have to complete a form (sent out separately) and return it to the Organising committee not later than December 24th, 2020.

The Results of the EMC test will be communicated to the teams in good time. In case the radio frequency is classified as “not free”, but the team insists on using their own radios, the fee or penalty for using such frequencies will have to be paid by the teams!

RACE OFFICE

Race Office and the information desk will be located at the official hotel of the event.

Team registration and team captains' meetings will be held at the hotel according to the event schedule.

BIBS

All competitors must wear bibs during all official trainings, competition and award ceremonies.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE

Each competitor must carry his/her own medical insurance. The Organizing Committee, sponsors, suppliers, FIS and Snowboard Federation of Russia assume no responsibility for accidents, damage or loss of equipment, nor second or third party claims during the event.

In the case of accidents on course during competition or trainings, medical personnel from the Organizing Committee will be responsible for any medical decision in co-operation with the respective team's medical personnel and local hospital.

ANTI-DOPING CONTROL
