RADIO COMMUNICATION

Please be advised that starting from 2016 you need to apply for a temporary permit to use radio frequencies during sporting events in Russia (Russian State Committee for Radio Frequencies Resolution No. 16-39-01 dated November 07, 2016). The permit may be issued (or refused) for a particular area that has to be certified by Electromagnetic Compatibility Expert Board. Application review can take up to 45 calendar days.

As the procedure is lengthy and complex and considering the experience of the past event the OC will offer the same service as last year: provide radio stations working on legal frequencies during the competition for rent. The OC will cover the corresponding costs, and radio rental will be free of charge for you. While collecting your radios at the race office on the arrival day, you will be asked for a fully refundable deposit. The deposit will be returned to you on the departure day, provided all equipment is turned back in order.

To place a reservation, please e-mail us at wc.miass.2021@gmail.com and inform us on the number of radios, number and type of headsets (subject to availability) your team will require for the competition week.

INSURANCE/ LIABILITY

All athletes, officials and other members of the National Associations, who attend and participate in the competitions, shall do so at their own risk. The Organizing Committee, the Freestyle Federation of Russia and Sunny Valley alpine resort shall not be responsible for any loss or injuries occurred or suffered by any athlete, official or other person, in connection with the event.

Every competitor must have his/her own medical insurance. The Organizers decline any responsibility for accidents, damaged equipment and second- and third-party claims during the competitions. All athletes must have previously signed "FIS Athletes Declaration" form, in order to be registered.
