Youth Performance Program
Sunshine SBX training initiative

What:

A training opportunity for Clubs across the Country. This camp will be focused on providing a NorAm level training track within Canada to provide the space for developing and refining abilities for athletes of multiple LTD stages, and any discipline, to work together to explore and develop new skills and have fun on this type of venue, increasing the community of SBX snowboarders. This is for everyone including coaches to gain more insight into this discipline of the sport, and learn new coaching techniques. We will be splitting the training slots to accommodate the multiple skill sets/stages of the athletes to best support their training needs.

When:

Jan 14th-17th, 2022

Training Blocks:

9:30-1:30: NorAm/ Provincial Team training. This is for teams competing at the NorAm level.

Registration here.

1:30-4:00: Youth Performance Program. This is for open ages, any discipline and is for LTD Stage 2+ clubs who are looking to gain insight and experience in SBX.

Registration here. The deadline is January 9th 5:00pm Pacific time.

Lift Tickets:

Youth Performance Program Camp requirements:

As this is a team training opportunity, athletes must attend with coaches. If your team is not interested in participating please contact Mike.Stastook@CanadaSnowboard.ca. Coaches must register as we will be communicating with the coaches regarding the activation.

Goal of the camp:

- Give more opportunities to more snowboarders to ride a snowboard cross course
- Providing Provinces more venue-specific opportunities for CWG 2023 selections
- Identify, track and mentor potential future high performance SBX-athletes at early development stages
- Engage more snowboarders into the Speed disciplines
- Provide more resources to coaches, and athletes

NorAm Camp Extension January 18-21, 2022:

Please contact Meghan Hebert at meg.heb@live.com for details as that will not be ran by Canada Snowboard. This is for the NorAm level only.
