THE EVENT

The All Japan Ski Federation and Kanagawa Ski Federation have decided to hold the NEKOMA MOUNTAIN BIG AIR by Hoshino Resorts. The slopestyle competition will be held from February 15 to 17 at Nekoma Mountain Ski Resorts Global Park in Bandai-cho, Fukushima Prefecture, bringing together the rising stars of freestyle snowboarding from across Japan. Athletes will do their best to hone their skills and appeal to the judges. THE PARKS, which operates parks at many resorts in Japan, will provide sections. On behalf of Japan Snowboarding, I would like to extend a hearty welcome to the Japanese and international athletes participating in this event. I know that the organizers have worked hard to prepare the course and take care of all the details so that everyone can enjoy the competition at its best. We hope that this will be a memorable event in your competitive snowboarding career. All of us in the competitive snowboarding community in Japan wish you the best of luck.

Have fun, good luck, and good luck!"

THE RESORT

●NEKOMA MOUNTAIN BIG AIR by Hoshino Resorts 2024

Nekoma Mountain Ski Resorts Global Park

Hoshino Resort Nekoma Mountain (former Aruz Bandai & Nekoma Ski Resort) is a big slope with 33 courses and 13 lifts. The slopes with different expressions are spread out in the north and south of Nekomagatake (Mt. Nekomagatake) in the 100-meter-high "Bandai-san" mountain range. With the connecting lifts connecting the north area (former Nekoma ski area) and the south area (former Aruz Bandai), visitors can now enjoy the vast slopes more freely.

Bandai is one of the most snow blessed areas in Japan. The northern area (former Nekoma Ski Area) is over 1,000 meters above sea level, and the amount of snow that falls there is not only abundant, but also light because of the north-facing slopes, so the accumulated snow does not melt easily.
