

FIS TELEMAR WORLD CUP

INVITATION

WELCOME TO KRVAVEC, SLOVENIA!

Telemark Slovenia kindly invites you to the 2025 FIS World Cup to be held in the ski resort of Krvavec. It is not the first time we are hosting the FIS World Cup in this ski resort, but we will do our best to bring you only nice moments and memories, again.

ABOUT KRVAVEC...

Krvavec is a popular ski resort and outdoor recreational area in Slovenia, located about 35 kilometers from the capital city, Ljubljana (the cable car bottom station). It's one of the country's most well-known alpine destinations, offering a wide range of activities throughout the year. With its 30 kilometres of well-maintained ski slopes, at an altitude of 1,450 m to 1,971 m ensuring reliable snow conditions during the winter months, it is suitable for all levels of skiers – from beginners and intermediate, to top skiers and competitors. The ski resort completes the various range of ski trails with an additional offer for non-skiers. It is within 40-minute drive from the larger cities of Ljubljana and Kranj. The resort is accessible via road, and a cable car connects the valley to the mountain top.
